Muslim Hands Indonesian Earthquake Appeal

Muslim Hands Emergency Teams are now in Indonesia, providing survivors of the Yogyakarta Earthquake with essential food supplies and medical care.

Forward Teams from Aceh, Medan and Jakarta have been in the affected areas since 28th May and immediately began aid distribution in Bantul - the most severely affected area.

Muslim Hands has set up a refugee camp in Bantul and is providing food, shelter, clean water and medical care.

Distribution of aid has begun to surrounding areas, including blankets, lanterns and electricity generators for medical clinics.

"The condition of the refugees here is very bad and is expected to worsen, as we are now in the heavy rain season. Your support is urgently needed"
